Programs for Kids

Women, Infants & Children Program (WIC)

(See income guidelines below.)

This special program helps pregnant women and mothers with children under age 5 with food, health screenings, and nutrition information. Summer vouchers (Farmers' Market Nutrition Program) are also available to redeem at local farm markets. The Community Progress Council-WIC offices are temporarily closed to the public. All new applications and current client appointments are by phone, with electronic eWIC cards mailed to clients.

For more information, call (717) 843-7942 or search online at pawic.com.

Meals for School Students

Contact your school or search the school district's website for information about school meals and any additional food assistance programs offered by the school and local community partners.

Programs for Seniors

Senior Box Program

Once per month, income-eligible seniors (60+) can get a free box of healthy food. For pick-up locations and to sign up, call the York County Food Bank at 717-846-6435 x 209. In keeping with social distancing practices, many locations are offering "drive up" distribution and are allowing a "proxy" to pick up the box. (See income guidelines below)

Take-Out Meals

Take-out meals are available at York County senior centers for any resident 60 years of age or older. Call your local senior center for more details and to sign-up for a take-out meal. To find a senior center near you call, 717-771-9610 or visit the website: yorkcountypa.gov/county-human-services/agency-on-aging/senior-centers.html.

Home Delivered Meals

Home delivered meals are available to a York County resident in a non-institutional setting, 60 years of age or older with a disability which prohibits the individual from leaving his/her residence, living alone or with someone who also meets these criteria. Contact the York County Area Agency on Aging at 771-771-9610 for more information.
