New Hope Ministries Update

December 2025

We're excited to share one of this year's Christmas card winners! This delightful piece shows a cozy church surrounded by snow, with a decorated Christmas tree, a cheerful snowman, and a little angel in the corner watching over a tiny manger scene. It reflects the joy, peace, and sense of belonging that Christmas brings to everyone around us. We are so grateful to celebrate the creativity and spirit of those we serve, and to share this beautiful artwork that reflects the heart of our ministry this season.

Our second winner created a beautiful manger scene with a shining star in the background, capturing the wonder of Jesus' birth. Their artwork reminds us of the hope, love, and joy that this season brings to our community. This heartfelt creation reflects the spirit of faith, renewal, and togetherness that shines brightly in all we do. May it inspire warmth and celebration in your heart and home this Christmas.

"He will be a joy and delight to you, and many will rejoice because of his birth."

Luke 1:14

We are deeply grateful for our incredible volunteers and everyone who helped make our Thanksgiving distributions a success. This year, New Hope Ministries delivered 3,427 Thanksgiving dinners to neighbors in need, giving families the chance to gather around their tables with hope and gratitude. Thanks to your generosity, countless homes were filled with warmth, joy, and the true spirit of the season.

With God all things are possible. Mark 10:27
