New Hope Ministries Update

June 2024

What's cooking at New Hope?

Meet our dedicated Kitchen Coordinators! They create nutritious and delicious meals for the guests of New Hope from Monday through Friday. At our Dillsburg Center, we have Sheri; at our Dover Center, Sue (see reverse page); and at our Hanover Center, Ricky (below). Additionally, our staff and volunteers at other centers work tirelessly to prepare nutritious tastings for our guests. Featured in the photo to the right are volunteers Mary and Diane, who create delightful breakfast and lunch items every Monday in Mechanicsburg.

Food is a fundamental necessity, and by preparing meals for those in need, we ensure access to nutritious food, promoting overall health and well-being. Offering these meals goes beyond satisfying hunger; it affirms the dignity and worth of every individual. Everyone deserves food that is prepared with care and respect.

Thanks to your support of our programs, we can do just that!

God's intent is for hungry people to be fed, and he calls his people to participate in providing the food.

Matthew 14:16

You will find our Dover Kitchen Coordinator Sue in the back row on the far right. She is surrounded by her loyal crew of volunteers who help to prepare amazing meals for our guests!

This is Kitchen Coordinator Sheri whipping up something delicious at our Dillsburg Center.

New Hope Ministries was the Runner Up in the Central Penn Business Journal 2024 Nonprofit Innovation Awards for our Transportation and Housing Programs. How exciting! Thank you for supporting our programs that are making a difference in the lives of the people we serve in our community!
