

We first met Danielle at the job fair in Hanover, where she shared her story of perseverance and determination. After a season of unemployment, Danielle had recently re-entered the workforce and proudly received her first paycheck, a meaningful step forward toward stability and independence.

However, one major challenge stood in her way. Without reliable transportation, getting to and from work each day was uncertain and stressful. Danielle remained committed to moving forward, and with support from our team and with the generous giving of our community, she was able to receive a vehicle of her own. What a difference that support has made. Today, Danielle is thriving. She is fully employed, financially independent, and has dependable transportation that allows her to continue building a strong, stable, and secure future.

You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you.
